

CONTENTS – TUTOR’S HANDBOOK

1. Overview of Units 1 – 5 for Tutors.
2. Guidelines for course organisation in tutoring Unit 2, Unit 3 and Unit 5
3. Guidelines for Shadow Tutors
4. In conclusion
5. Additional non examinable topics
6. Guidelines for Examiners, Tutors, Dancers concerning injured candidates
7. What to do if ... scenarios
8. Contact with candidates, tutor and examiners
9. Presence of an interpreter in RSCDS examinations
10. Unit 3 and Unit 5 Examiner expectations in a lesson (updated March 2023)

Appendices

- I. Sample letter to Unit 2 and Unit 3 candidates
- II. Sample letter to Unit 5 candidates
- III. Unit 2 assessment form X2-08
- IV. Unit 2 order in which the candidates will dance
- V. Unit 3 assessment form X3-08
- VI. Unit 5 assessment form X5-07
- VII. Lesson plan templates see Appendix E of Syllabus
- VIII. Examinable areas of the Manual for Unit 1
- IX. Basic structure and function of the body relevant to Scottish Country dancing
- X. Major muscle groups (front)
- XI. Major muscle groups (back)
- XII. X3-28 Transition from Unit 3 to Unit 4

Reference materials

- The Manual 3rd edition (revised electronic version January 2016)
- Teaching Certificate Syllabus (effective from 1st March 2020)
- Teaching Scottish Country Dancing ~ Guidelines
- Unit 1 question bank including the list of examinable areas of The Manual
- Unit 3 assignment bank
- Unit 5 assignment bank
- Standard Terminology
- An introduction to warming up and cooling down for Scottish Country dancing **
- A Guide to Music in the teaching of Scottish Country dancing **

The documents above and other documents relating to the Teaching Certificate courses can all be downloaded from the RSCDS website at <https://rscds.org/learn/teacher-training/teaching-certificate> or  purchased from the RSCDS shop.